NUMB. 343

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY September 13, to SATURDAY September 20, 1742.

LONDON, July 9.

THE VICTORY Man of War having the Honour of a Prince of the Royal Blood on Board, and being juſt ready to ſail on an Expedition, which at preſent engages the Attention of all Europe, it may not prove unacceptable to the Publick to give a Deſcription of this Ship, as tranſmitted by the Maſter Gunner, from Portſmouth, where ſhe was built. She is a Firſt Rate, and mounts 112 Braſs Guns, which ſhe carries higher out of the Water (being 200 Tons larger) than any Firſt Rate in the Royal Navy; ſhe has Stowage for 1200 Men, with the neceſſary Proviſions and Ammunition. Her length from Head to Stern is 221 Feet 10 Inches. She is a compleat Piece of Workmanſhip, magnificently adorn'd with curious Carvings, all gilt, the Figures being high finiſh'd.

The fine Appearance ſhe made on Friday, when dreſs'd up, as the Sailors call it, to receive the Royal Volunteer on Board, is rather to be conceiv'd than expreſs'd; and when under Sail, ſhe muſt make a Sight of herſelf not to be equalled by any ſingle Ship in the Univerſe; and without Vanity we may hope, whilſt mann'd and commanded as at preſent, the Victory will ſupport the Honour of her Name to whatever Part of the World ſhe may ſail, or againſt whomſoever ſhe may be engag'd.

Yeſterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordſhips were pleas'd to appoint Lieutenant Smith to be Captain of the Scarborough Man of War, now turn'd into a Hoſpital Ship.

The Yachts are all out of the Docks, and wait for Orders to ſail for Holland, to attend his Majeſty's Arrival there, in his Way to England.

Yeſterday came Advice, that the Snow Peggy, commanded by Capt. Galt, bound from Philadelphia for Lizbon, was taken by the Spaniards as ſhe was going into the latter Port.

Laſt Week Capt. Matthew Michell was remov'd from being Commander of the Swift Sloop, and was appointed by the Lords of the Admiralty to be Captain of his Majeſty's Ship the Pearl of Forty Guns, in the Room of Capt. Legg, remov'd to the Severn Man of War.

To Admiral Haddock, on the Succeſſes of Admiral Vernon.

ROuze Haddock, rowze thee from inglorious Sleep,
And with avenging Squadrons ſcour the deep;
'Tis Britain, injur'd Britain, calls thee forth,
Ariſe, to Action, and reſume thy Worth;
Rowze, Haddock, rowze thee; hark from Indian Shoar
The Burſt of Bombs, and the loud Cannons roar;
'Tis conquering Vernon thunders in thy Ears,
Vernon who fills the Weſtern World with Fears:
With half thy Force ſee Carthagena burn'd,
Chagre and Porto Bello's Forts o'erturn'd;
Whilſt thou, or by inactive Orders bound,
Or ſeiz'd thyſelf with Lethargy profound;
Doſt, or in vain Parades thy Squadrons lead,
Or ſlumb'ring heavy at dull Anchor nod.
Riſe, Admiral, and from thy Deck ſurvey
Thy Strength, how mighty Navies crowd the Sea;
Then think, thou Maſter of this floating Hoſt,
The time for acting Wonders thou haſt loſt.
Cadiz entire, the Puntals hot in Flames;
Pintado's Squadron 'ſcap'd thee to our Shame;
Thy burſting Bombs nor Malaga has heard,
Nor its capacious Mould thy Cannons fear'd;
Yet Alicant untouch'd, and Carthage whole,
While Spaniſh Gallies act without controul,
From Sevill's Streams full fraught with warlike Stores,
They paſs Gibraltar's Height, then turn for more.
Majorca, Barcelona full in Sight,
Yet unattempted, bear thee free from Fright.
Behold the Lauriels by great Vernon won,

The

The mighty Acts by six Ships only done.
See the brave Man who love of Virtue fires,
Whose honest Breast his Country's Cause inspires;
Fearless of Ministerial Wrath, behold
He carries Terror to far distant Worlds;
Retrieves the Honour of the British Name,
Its long lost Honours and its sinking Fame:
Bids once again the dreaded Flag display,
Which since the Day of Byng in Rubbish lay;
Commands the Cobwebs from the Cannons bore,
Unchains the British Lions, bids them roar:
With Fire and Sword the hostile Land invades,
A welcome Sacrifice to Hosier's Shade;
Whilst he unhappy Heroe wrapp'd in Night,
Smiles grimly from his Tomb on Vernon's Fight:
Revenge, he cries, thy Country's Wrongs and mine,
A Monument of Shame, behold my Shrine;
By my Example, oh, let Haddock learn,
Either to act like you, or peaceful Orders spurn.

On Monday Night, a Methodist Teacher, who was preaching in Marybon Fields, making use of Expressions reflecting on Archbishop Tillotson, and the Whole Duty of Man, telling the People they might as safely read Plays, or profane Books, as the Whole Duty of Man, or Tillotson's Works, the Audience resented it so highly, that he with much Difficulty escap'd in a Hackney Coach, which was almost broke to Pieces by the Mob throwing Stones and Brickbats at it.

NEW-PORT, July 7.

On Saturday Night last arrived here, Col. Cranston and Capt. Collingwood from their Cruize, as mentioned in our last, but neither saw nor heard any thing of the supposed Spanish Privateer, and on Monday Evening there was an Information of a Spanish Ship on our Coast from the Island of Teneriff; whereupon both Vessels were ordered out against and sail'd before Midnight: Capt. Collingwood came up first with the Ship and sent his Boat to Board her which they kept off with their Shot (having two Guns;) Upon which he made up to them with his Sloop, and after giving them a Salute or two, the whole Company took to their Boat, and made to Land, and left the Ship to Capt. Collingwood, who supply'd her with Men, and pursu'd the Deserters, and has since brought them with him; in the mean Time Col. Cranston took the Ship under his Convoy and conducted her in, in Company with the Boston Privateer Commanded by Capt. Willis, who happened to be off the Harbour; it is said the Ship is loaded with Wines, with which we hope to be exceeding merry, in drinking his Majesty's Health, and Success to the British Arms, &c. &c.
